I Marshall- Assistant Pastoral Manager/ HLTA
K Bairstow- SPLD Teacher

Course Information:

Session 1: Access arrangements

- Acting as a Reader, Scribe or Oral Language Modifier

A chance to refresh your knowledge in terms of best practise when acting as a Reader, Scribe, Oral Language Modifier. We will cover the boundaries imposed on Support Assistants during formal examinations. The importance of the Teaching Assistant's role in supporting an application for Access Arrangements will also be covered.

Session 2: Pupil focused outcomes

- Person Centred working

A chance to update your working in line with the new code of practice. We will cover how to ensure reviews are pupil-focused and meet the requirements for Education Health Care Plans. The extremely useful technique of solutions circles: outcome based problem solving will also be discussed.

Session 3: Social Emotional and Mental Health in a whole school setting

- The role of the teaching assistant in supporting those with SEMH needs.

The number of children whose needs fit into this category is rising. Teaching Assistants often work closely with these vulnerable students, developing close working relationships with them. We will cover efficient ways of working with students with SEMH needs, communicating these needs with staff and how to work closely with parents. Practical strategies for everyday use will also be covered.
